Course description and objectives

The course is aimed at students who wish to approach the study of the Portuguese language in a gradual and structured manner. Given the introductory nature of the course and the size of the class, teaching focuses primarily on developing basic listening comprehension and oral interaction skills.

By the end of the course, students will be able to:

- understand and use simple everyday expressions
- greet people, introduce themselves and take part in brief exchanges
- ask for and provide basic personal information
- talk about preferences, habits and daily activities
- understand some fundamental aspects of Brazilian culture
- recognise and use some basic grammatical structures of the Portuguese language

The expected level at the end of the course corresponds to an introductory A1 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

Audience

The course is open to all students enrolled in Bocconi.

Prerequisites

No prior knowledge is required.

Duration

40 hours
