1. CIVICA & ACTIONS FOR THE CIVICA STUDENT COMMUNITY

CIVICA – The European University of Social Sciences - brings together ten leading European higher education institutions in the social sciences and aims to build an inter-university campus that provides joint and long-lasting opportunities in teaching, research and innovative learning, while enhancing academic excellence and facilitating civic engagement in Europe and beyond.

CIVICA was selected by the European Commission in 2019 as one of the pilot European Universities and confirmed as successful alliance in 2022 for its full rollout under the Erasmus+ programme.

CIVICA members are:

Italy

Intergovernmental

Germany

Spain

France

Poland Sweden

United Kingdom

Under the leadership of SGH Warsaw School of Economics, CIVICA partners are developing a framework to foster students' engagement within the CIVICA alliance while strengthening their sense of belonging and shared identity, deeply rooted in European values and heritage.

The CIVICA Student Engagement Fund (SEF) is introduced as one of the initiatives facilitating bridge-building between nations, cultures, and languages, through inter-campus activities, networking and sharing of experiences.

new member as of October 2022

2. THE CIVICA STUDENT ENGAGEMENT FUND (SEF) AT A GLANCE

The CIVICA Student Engagement Fund (SEF):

- Is a mini-grant funding scheme aimed at supporting student-led joint initiatives within the CIVICA alliance such as events (in-person or online), competitions, hackathons, digital activities etc.
- Will support up to 10 joint initiatives per academic year across the alliance, to be implemented during the spring semester 2026.
- Will foresee one centralized call for application in academic year 2025/2026, with application deadline in November.
- The design and operational implementation of the CIVICA SEF is coordinated by SGH Warsaw School of Economics.

PLEASE NOTE:

Student-led joint initiatives to be financed through the CIVICA SEF can be proposed by:

1. A project team formed by (at least) 2 registered student associations from at least 2 CIVICA partner universities. In this case, members from all the student associations are expected to work on implementing the joint initiative.

OR

2. An ad-hoc project team formed by students representing a minimum of 2 CIVICA partner universities declaring to work on the initiative. In this case, team members can include both student association members and unaffiliated students willing to work together.

Student Representation Groups and the Student Media Center at Bocconi are NOT eligible to apply for SEF funding.

3. SEF: ELIGIBILITY CONDITIONS OF JOINT INITIATIVES

THE EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

To qualify for SEF fundings, student-led joint initiatives must meet the following criteria:

1. Be implemented either by registered student associations or by an ad-hoc project team representing at least 2 CIVICA partner universities

- 2. Be fully compliant with local rules and regulations governing studentled initiatives at each partner university involved
- 3. Bring added value to students from the CIVICA alliance as well as creating a positive impact for the respective students' communities;
- 4. Be aligned with one of the following 4 thematic priorities of CIVICA

| Data-Driven Technologies for the Social Sciences | Democracy in the 21st Century | Europe Revisited | Societies inTransition, Crises ofEarth |  |
|--------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|------------------|------------------------------------------------|--|
|--------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|------------------|------------------------------------------------|--|

OR with other EU priorities (sustainability, diversity&inclusion, etc.)

OR addressing global/societal challenges

OR having a core emphasis on Social Sciences (Law, Economics, etc).

IMPORTANT NOTES FOR BOCCONI STUDENTS:

- In order to qualify for SEF funding, projects/initiatives MUST be fully compliant with the CASA Committee Regulations (see here) and MUST receive formal pre-approval.
- Involvement of any third party outside of the CIVICA alliance (es. companies/institutions etc) MUST respect the detailed provisions explained in the CASA Regulations (see here) and MUST receive formal pre-approval.

4. SEF: MODALITIES OF FINANCING - AT A GLANCE

- Funding of joint initiatives will be shared equally (or as evenly as possible) between the partner universities involved, keeping in mind the following limits:
  - Each university can allocate a maximum of 3.000
     EUR per single initiative in which its students associations or students take part within the SEF framework.
  - The total cumulated funding request per single initiative cannot exceed 10.000 EUR.
- Each student association/dedicated project team will thus be funded by the dedicated CIVICA budget of the respective home university for the respective portion of the joint initiative they will implement.

IMPORTANT NOTE FOR BOCCONI STUDENTS: all approved
expenses will be managed by Bocconi on behalf of its students
and will not be transferred to the student associations

PLEASE NOTE:

The CIVICA SEF will cover only those expenses that are directly related to the joint initiative, provided they are:

- 1. realistic
- 2. in line with the expected results
- 3. compliant with Partner Institutions' administrative rules
- 4. eligible according to Erasmus+ grant funding rules.
