

Department of Policy Analysis and Public Management

Report on the Call for a position of Full Professor in Political Science

September 2014

The call for a position of Full Professor in Political Science was issued by the Department of Policy Analysis and Public Management. The deadline to receive the application was set at May 31st 2014.

Five applications have been submitted. These applications have been evaluated by a committee composed of three full professors of the department: Franco Amatori, Elio Borbonovi and Vincenzo Galasso.

Among the five candidates (OMISSIS, and Massimo Morelli) based on the evaluation of their application, as reported below, the committee unanimously decided to proceed with an offer to Massimo Morelli.

Brief evaluation of the candidates:

OMISSIS.

OMISSIS.

OMISSIS.

OMISSIS.

Massimo Morelli is a Full Professor of Political Science at the Political Science Department of Columbia University, in New York. He holds a PhD in Economics from Harvard University. His research deals with political economics, comparative politics, international relations, game theory, behavioral and public economics. Morelli has extensively published in all top international journals in political economics, with a particular emphasis on game theory and public economics, including the American Economic Review, Econometric, the Quarterly Journal of Economics, the Review of Economic Studies, Journal of Economic Theory, Journal of Public Economics. In political science, with particular emphasis on international relations, he has extensively published in all top international journals including American Journal of Political Science, American Political Science Review, Quarterly Journal of Political Science. His research profile is of absolute excellence.

Department of Policy Analysis and Public Management
The Department Head
Prof. Giovanni Fattore

f.to Giovanni Fattore