

Bocconi

Performing ARTS Night 2024

8 MAY / 8 MAGGIO

Aula Magna | Via Röntgen 1

Participants of the acting, singing and dance courses and the Bocconi theatre student association come together in an evening dedicated to the performing arts.

FREE ENTRANCE,
REGISTRATION REQUIRED.

FOR INFORMATION AND REGISTRATION

INGRESSO GRATUITO
PRENOTAZIONE
OBBLIGATORIA.

PER INFORMAZIONI E
PRENOTAZIONI

7:00PM | ACTING SHAKESPEARE FRAGMENTS

held in English / in inglese

A journey led by acting course participants through the bard's best-known plays. Directed by Manuel Renga and Riccardo Vanetta, professors of theatre direction at the Civica Scuola di Teatro Paolo Grassi.

In collaboration with

7:45PM | CHORAL SINGING SUMER IS ICUMEN IN

held in English / in inglese

The arrival of the beautiful season inspired, in Britain eight centuries ago, the oldest chant in Rota form known to date, a brilliant example of how voices can intertwine. This also happens in the other canon pieces. Directed by Aleksander Zielinski, pianist and choral teacher

In collaboration with  YAMAHA
Make Waves

8:30PM | DANCE "ONCE UPON A TIME IN ... BOCCONI!"

held in English / in inglese

"Once Upon a Time in ... Bocconi!", the show of the GuiDance course is an homage to some of the greatest american songs written between the 1950s and the early 2000s. Created by famous choreographer Marco Pelle in collaboration with former-La Scala-soloist Beatrice Carbone. Special performance by a surprise guest.

9:30PM ASSOCIAZIONE GRUPPO TEATRO STUDENTI BOCCONI

held in Italian / in italiano

Tennessee Blues di Tennessee Williams
Tre atti unici in cui Tennessee Williams presenta tre affreschi di realtà dell'esistenza umana che troppo spesso si cerca di non vedere. Regia di Marco Brambini e Giuseppe Fresca.

Università
Bocconi
MILANO

ORGANIZED BY ORGANIZZATO DA
CAMPUS LIFE
ARTS & HUMANITIES