"Ad personam" external fellowship (if any) See  note below the table	self-declaration of financial support by external donor, if any	document attesting "ad personam" financial support by external donor

(Notes):
(*) Candidates must upload the certification of their degrees specifying: name of degree, home University, date of graduation, final grade (if any), exams taken and grades achieved.
If the candidates have not completed their graduate studies, they must upload documents certifying: enrollment in a degree program, their full study plan, exams taken and grades achieved.

Self-certification is allowed only for Italian and foreign candidates with Italian degrees.

Documents sent by post, email or fax are not accepted. In particular, GRE and GMAT reports have to be uploaded by the candidate in the online procedure; score reports sent by ETS (GRE) and GMAC Customer Service (GMAT) are not accepted.

() Candidates notify their ad personam fellowship (if any) as soon as they have a document attesting it; it may occur at any time; therefore the applicant fills in the on-line section, only in case he/she is sure to benefit from the fellowship before the deadline for application and only if he(she can attest it with a document (please note: the application for a fellowship is not sufficient to prove the "ad personam" financial support)
Otherwise he/she will notify later (before or even after enrollment BUT WITHIN JULY 4th) by email (gualtiero.valsecchi@unibocconi.it or barbara.contaldo@unibocconi.it).
Financial support by external donors is not included in the assessment criteria, therefore it does not contribute to increasing the score in the ranking for admission results.
